The 1969 acres of Fire Cured Tobacco to be harvested are 624.01 acres, according to J.N. Jennings, ASCS Office Manager.

A year earlier we harvested 613.16 acres of 49% of the allotted acreage.

Growers in 1969 received a 10% increase in acreage allotment, but we only got an 11 acre increase over 1968. The 1969 crop represents 45% of the permitted acreage harvested.

Last week at the Turfgrass and Ornamental Disease Field Day at Chatham we were particularly impressed with at least one new chemical. This was for powdery mildew and black-spot on roses.

Here - to - fore two different chemicals were necessary, Benlate, which should have clearance by next season will, in all probability, be high on the recommended list.

You can reduce the incidence of worm injury to young pigs by worming the sows 7 to 10 days before farrowing. Atgard V or Thibenzole are very effective.

Worms are one cause of scours in young pigs.

I don't think that I've seen a single tractor in Appomattox County equipped with safety belts and protective frames or crush resistant cabs.

Accident report show that 58 percent of all tractor fatalities occur when tractors overturn or are upset.

The cost of this protection is small compared to the potential savings in life, injury, medical costs and property damage.

This is not to suggest that protective frames offer 100 per cent protection. Common sense should still be practiced and is certainly the basic approach to preventing tractor accidents.

Approximately 700 steers have been consigned to the Yearling Sale in Lynchburg September 11.

There are three consignors from Appomattox County—J.C. Caldwell, Jr.; Ronald Paulette; and Horace Coleman.

There are certain qualities about apple varieties that makes one preferable to others. The new apple crop is coming on the market. Buy for a particular use.

Sauce: Grimes Golden, York Imperial, Shenandoah, Stayman, Golden Delicious, Winesap, Jonathan.

Baking: York Imperial, Rome Beauty, Stayman, Golden Delicious, Grimes Golden.

Pie: York Imperial, Golden Delicious, Shenandoah, Stayman, Grimes Golden, Winesap, Jonathan.

Eating: Red Delicious, Golden Delicious, Grimes Golden, Stayman, Winesap, Jonathan, Lowery, Roanoke.

Salads: Stayman, Grimes Golden, Winesap, Red Delicious, Roanoke, Golden Delicious.

With lots of feed there should be more calves being wintered this year. Remember you can determine your break-even cost by estimating your gain and dividing into your estimated cost. For example you purchase a 350 pound calf, add 200 pounds in gain. You sell a 550 pound calf. Assuming a cost of calf, feed and other expenses at $162; The cost, $162 is divided by 550 and we come up with a "break - even" price of 29¢. Anything over 29¢ is profit.

SEC To Meet Saturday

The Annual Meeting of Southside Electric Cooperative will be held Saturday, Sept. 6, 1969, in the Cooperative Pavilion located about one mile west of Crewe on Route 460.

Reports will be made by the President, Secretary, and General Manager concerning the operations and financial status through Dec. 31, 1968.

There will be an election of directors for Districts I, II, and III. The nominating committees appointed by the board of directors have nominated the following: District I, Nottoway County, Mr. J. Woodrow Martin; District II, Dinwiddie, Sussex, and Prince George Counties, H.B. Thrift; District III, Brunswick County, O. S. Williams. All members present in person or by proxy will be eligible to cast a vote for the director of his choice in each district. Any candidate for director must live within the bounds of the district he will represent.

Dr. T. Marshall Hahn, President of VPI, will speak to those in attendance at the meeting regarding plans and progress in Southside Virginia. A most recent development is the proposed cooperative experiment station to be located in Southside Virginia and Dr. Hahn will review some of the requirements of this new venture.

The Burkeville Martian Club and the Crewe Kiwanis Club will provide food and refreshments for all at modest prices.

For those interested in adequate low cost housing, a total electric mobile home will be on display furnished through the courtesy of Usry Mobile Homes, Farmville Branch. The features of total electric living in mobile homes is almost unbelievable. Young couples and retired couples are invited to tour the home that will be on display.

The Arthur Smith show will be on hand to provide entertainment for all who attend. This group is returning for the second time through popular request.

All members are urged to attend this most important meeting of their Southside Electric Cooperative.

Tomatoes Are Bigger!

Good rainfall and plenty of summer sunshine in Appomattox has meant large, luscious vegetables for numbers of gardeners including Mrs. Vina Kress and her granddaughter, Becky Johnson (above) who brought these tomatoes into the T-VA office last week. From reports throughout the area the canneries will stay quite busy for several weeks as farmers and home gardeners harvest the rest of a bountiful crop for cold-weather eating. Becky told the staff that her mother and dad grew these tomatoes and lots of other good things, as well.

Westvaco Opens At Pemberton

The flood-damaged Westvaco woodyard at Pemberton on the James River has reopened following extensive clean-up and repair.

A second wood buying facility at Howardsville will not reopen until state access roads and bridges are repaired, Westvaco announced.

The Pemberton woodyard in western Goodchland County had silted and suffered equipment damage when it was cover ed with six feet of water. The facility is situated approximately 2400 feet away from the James River near the Pemberton - Cartersville bridge.

Westvaco has appealed for delivery of flood and landslide damaged trees for puchase at its 15 woodyards throughout the James River Basin and Piedmont sections of Virginia. Eight of the yards are located close to the areas of flooding at Pemberton, Gordonsville, Kelly near Lynchburg, Caskie near Best Creek, Dillwyn, Natural Bridge and Covington. A ninth woodyard at Howardsville in Nelson County will reopen following state road and bridge repair.

Many people temporarily unemployed in the flood-stricken areas because of closed factories and flooded crop landare cleaning up damaged trees and
